Leicestershire kicked off their season at Headingley against Yorkshire where they won for the first time in over 100 years. The home record is a little better have last beaten our visitors at Grace Road in 2002. Although only 6 matches have been played since the turn of the century.

Yorkshire last visited Grace Rd for a first class match in 2012. A Drawn match which featured current Director of Cricket Claude Henderson as well as a youthful Jonny Bairstow who hit 117 on the Saturday afternoon.

Foxes have won just 11 games at home against 40 losses with 33 drawn
