We start by congratulating Durham on winning promotion to Division 1 and finishing top of Division 2. They have won 6 of their 13 games, drawn 6 and only lost 1 match. Whilst not mathematically impossible for Foxes to join them, Worcester require just 2 points from their match at Headingley to join Durham in div 2.

The game earlier in the season at Grace Rd was a high scoring affair with Leicestershire holding on for a draw. Set 438 to win, thanks to an unbeaten 136 from Peter Handscomb finishing 259 for 8. Batting dominated the match with Alex Lees scoring 100 in both innings. A season in which he has amassed 1341 runs at 74.50 in the Championship.
