The first recorded match against Hampshire was at Lords old ground in Marylebone in 1803 when a combined team from Nottinghamshire & Leicestershire played Hampshire in a 3 day match. Hampshire winning by an innings & 20 runs

The bowling was opened for the Leics & Notts team by The Reverend Lord Frederick Beauclerk the “leading amateur player of the Napoleonic eara” whos action was described as ‘Slow, Underarm with unknown arm’ !

The last Championship match was in August 2014 at Southampton in August and before that the last Championship meeting at Grace Rd was May 2014 when the Foxes were captained by Ronnie Sarwan
