Championship returns with trip to HQ

When the fixtures were released last season it was a great disappointment to find that we were not to play Middlesex away and my fear was that this season would see us at Uxbridge or another outground. So I for one am eagerly looking forward to the visit to HQ. It is actually 8 years since the Foxes last played at Lords and some 39 years since we last won a

It will come as no surprise then to learn that not a single member of that team from 8 years ago is still on the books. In fact of the likely squad for this game only Chris Wright has played more than twice at HQ and for 6 of the starting line up it will be their first experience of a first class match, so getting used to the slope will be an immediate requirement.

I am sure everyone is delighted to see Mohammad Abbas return to the fold for this game. With his exploits for Pakistan at Lords last year fresh in the mind and a depleted Middlesex batting line up due to international duties this could be the opportunity to grab a 5 wicket haul at HQ. Welcome back Mo.

Middlesex go into the game minus several regular 1st choice batters & bowlers. The Foxes are taking a squad of 13 and will decide the final line up in the morning.

The wicket looks to be well over towards the mound stand so a short boundary one side

Travelling to Lords

Whether it's first time or your umpteenth visit here are some useful notes:-

- Nearest Tube station is St John's Wood on Jubilee Line
- There is no car parking at the ground
- Gates open at 9:30
- Admission is £20 per day
- Leicestershire CCC members can access the Lord's pavillion on production of your membership card
- There is a strict dress code to access the navillion
- The Grandstand will not be used during this match

Foxes at HQ

Chris Wright leads the way with the most experience at Lords having played their 9 times. Of the LCCC squad Horton & Cosgrove have played twice, Javid & Abbas once. Wich leaves 8 of the 13 in the squad to make their first appearance at the Home of cricket.

In the last 50 years 3 Foxes batsmen have made their maiden 1st class 100 at HQ.

Paul Haywood in 1972, David Gower in 1976 and most recently Josh Cobb in 2008

There is no record of similar success for any of the bowlers. The last Fox to take 5 wickets was Matthew Hoggard in 2010 with 6-63
