The last game of any type was a Royal London Cup match in 2015 when Somerset were the visitors to Grace Rd and comprehensively won by 9 'outs'

There have been several Sunday League meetings in the intervening years but the last Championship cricket against the west county side was 14 years ago in 2007. The last being at Taunton May of 2007 when Somerset posted their highest total against the Foxes 675-5 the first 4 in the order all making 100's

Somerset's last visit to Grace Rd for a championship match was in April of the same year, 2007, when the visitors were victors by 198 runs. Steffan Jones scored 114 batting at number 9 in a partnership of 146 with Andy Caddick
