Have a smashing time

We return to the FCG for the Easter Sunday eggstravaganza that sees another visit from Worcestershire. Those who were lucky enough to be at New Road last season were treated to a 750 run festival of hitting. Ben Raine set the Foxes up with a mammoth score as well as gate crashing the sponsors lunch.

Only to be undone by Callum Ferguson who on debut hit 192 to overhail Foxes 376 with 2 overs to spare.

I see that Ferguson although retained by Worcs this season was in Australia this week getting married so perhaps we will only have to contend with Messers Rutherford, Wessels Mitchell & Cox for starters.

Congratulations to Dieter Klien who's last innings for the Foxes last season was a spectacular 94 in the Championship at Glamorgan and who's first innings this season was 46 in the List A game at Durham. Both career best innings for the South African

I am pretty sure that the focus on white ball cricket talked about around the FCG did not include 2 losses from the first 2 games. These were pretty hefty defeats as well emphasising the gulf in class between international quality players & a Foxes squad struggling to find any momentum. The star that is fast on the rise is that of Tom Taylor who once again proved the pick of the Leicestershire players with Ball & bat in both games so far. The visit of Worcs Rapids is another stern test with the dangerous Rutherford, Wessels & co looking to pile on more runs

The popular Pear & Ginger cake will be back for the visit of Worcestershire. From 2:30 in the meet to get your fix. In addition there is the Lucky Square competition to win a book from 'Blowers' Also don't forget your 2019 Playfair for £9.99

Its 10 years since Worcestershire won the Toss in a List A game against the Foxes. Of the 7 games since Leics decided to field 4 times bat twice with 1 abandoned. Our bet is 50/50 on them winning the toss again.
