Tough test awaits at Trent Bridge

With a return of 1 from 4 the prospects of progressing any further in the competition don't look good, particularly when the next 2 matches are away trips to 2 of the group heavyweights in Notts & Lancs. That said "its funny old game" and who would have thought Derbyshire would conspire to almost throw away a dominant display on Wednesday and only scrape through with a bit of luck and a fumble.

Derbyshire however are no Notts and despite a new look to the line up this year are currently unbeaten and racking up lots of runs. The one exception being the century maker from last year and local Leicester lad Samit Patel who looks to be struggling for some early season form. Foxes watch out. Zak Chappell will no doubt be keen to do well against his former team mates.

Congratulations

To Colin Ackermann for 2 successive hundreds in the last 2 rounds of the RLODC. Following up on his career best unbeaten 152 against Worcs, Colin produced another clean hitting innings of 119 against Derbys

It was good to see Callum Parkinson make his first appearance of the season, having recovered from a thumb injury whilst in India in March.

Doubt he will have been too impressed to have to bowl into the teeth of a howling gale when he came on against Derbyshire but the Foxes always look to have more options when 'Parkv lad' is on the field

When Arron Lilley stepped on his stump after being struck in the chest by Sam Conners it was the first time he had been out 'Hit wicket' in his career
