Disappointing Campaign draws to a close

As the sun sets on what might be the last meaningful 50 over competition in a while, we reflect on what has been a disappointing one for the Foxes. Make no mistake there has been some brilliant cricket played in the last month. Sadly most of it against us. Its very clear that the gap between the resources available to test match counties & the rest is getting bigger. This is evident in the international quality & depth of squads that we have come up against. Notts, Yorks, & Lancs fielded both England squad and overseas internationals in an array of talent, while our own International marvel was unfortunately missing.

The stand out performance was of course against Worcs with fine displays from the batters. Tom Taylor is proving to be the 'find' of the season now he is injury free but in a way Foxes fans start to worry that as his stock rises the big boys will be circling.

THANK YOU

To Paul Horton who has stepped down as White Ball captain. Paul seen below at the toss of his final game in charge at Old Trafford last weekend

Here's Mo

I am sure all Foxes fans were both relieved & delighted to see Mo Abbas back in action on Saturday. Welcome Back Mo, Go well !

GOOD LUCK

To Colin Ackermann who took over as Captain for the Northants game and is in charge today. Here he is practicing his coin spinning technique

The FoGR famous cakes will once again be available in the meet from around 2:30 with a guest appearance of the Cadbury Fudge Cake. The at seat service will be in operation as well .
