Leicestershire have lost 11 games against all opposition by 1 run. 4 of these being against Yorkshire. They have also beaten the Yorkshiremen by 1 run on 1 occasion and won by 1 wicket in 2 games, all of which suggest a closely contested affair.

In addition to this there has been 1 tie between the teams. In July 1997 at Grace Rd both sides scored 298-9 in a 40 over Sunday League match. Yorkshire put the Foxes into bat. Darren Maddy made 70 & James Whitaker 66. The Yorkshire innings was dominated by Craig White who made 148. Needing only from the final over with 4 wickets in hand, Gordon Parsons bowled and took the wicket of Morris with the first ball, there was a single of each of the next 3 balls before another run out. Yorkshire required 1 off the final ball to win as with scores level they had lost fewer wickets. However having complete the first run Richard Stemp was run out by Ian Sutcliffe leaving the scores level and both sides having lost 9 wickets
