The ground was originally known as the Lloyds Banks sports ground and is surrounded by similar facilities owned by Royal Bank of Scotland and HSBC group. Along side the cricket ground is the Crystal Palace FC training ground & academy a multi million pound development by the Premier league club in the early 2000's

First used by Kent in 1954 for a championship match, there have been 10 1st class matches 15 List A & 23 T20 Blast along with many other womens & mens ODI's
