This weekend should have signalled the start of the Vitality Blast with back to back games against Derby on Friday and at the FCG on Saturday against Northants. As it is the lads continue to stand and wait for news of any sort of Cricket. There is talk of a white and red ball action but as the season has again been pushed back to a start of 1st August at the earliest the chances seem to be receding.

It has been our custom to produce a blog in advance of each game that the Foxes play. However the hectic schedule in the T20 format and no action to report on we will revert to a weekly blog during the next couple of months

The Club held the AGM originally scheduled for March last Thursday evening. In a first this was done by Video Conference and with more than 70 members joining the virtual meeting. We will provide a more detailed update in the next blog. For now here are a few pictures of Grace Road in the sunshine this week
