OUTLAWS EDITION

Two of the best

Two of the most eagerly awaited Vitality Blast fixtures were scheduled for this weekend. The home match against Notts is always a big event especially on a Friday night. Then a Sunday afternoon trip to New Rd Worcester is a summer delight. However it's not to be and as we hear all sorts of rumours the longer things go on the less likely we are to see any meaningful cricket this season. I am not sure if the return of the football makes it harder to accept there is no cricket or not. Perhaps when the test matches start it will lift spirits a little. In the meantime Foxes like all counties continue to count the cost of big box office losses

Good news on the Virtual Cricket front saw the Foxes take maximum points from the trip to Durham. A win by an innings and 14 runs sees us move 45 pts clear of 2nd place Derbyshire. Tom Taylor with 8 wickets in the match did the damage as Durham were bowled out for 188 & 156 Whilst innings of 94 and 86 by Paul Horton & Colin Ackermann built a total of 358

Our new CEO Sean Jarvis will formally take up his role next week, arriving at the Club from 24th June. Given the comments on social media and the general sadness from HTFC fans at his departure, it looks like we have made an appointment of substance. Welcome and Good to Sean
